13th Spirituality Week Summer Course on Spirituality

SCHOOLS OF SPIRITUALITY

April 22-26, 2019

ISA Multi-Function Room, 4th Flr., Teresa of Avila Bldg., 28 Acacia St., New Manila, Quezon City

Morning Sessions (8:30 A.M. – 12:00 NN)

Speaker: Fr. Eliseo “Jun” Mercado, OMI

Professor, Notre Dame University Graduate School

Islamic Spirituality 101

The short course is an introduction to Islamic Spirituality beginning with the "Pillars of Islam" (Ibadaat/Worship). The Pillars and faithful adherence to their imperatives become the PRIMARY sources of Spirituality for Muslims. With the proper understanding of the Pillars of Islam as WORSHIP and SERVICE, the spiritual journey moves deeper into asceticism then to the journey of the HEART. The path of Sufi: from initiated to the "brotherhood" to UNION. The course would conclude with the Christian spirituality in the midst of Islam – exploring the way of Badaliyya.

Afternoon Sessions (1:30 - 4:30 P.M.)

“Schools of Spirituality are built around spiritual patterns, spiritual models. These spring from source experience which is made accessible by way of liturgy, spiritual exercises and like. Schools of Spirituality spring from the source of experience and that experience is expressed in rituals in religious communities, in specific culture.” - Kees Waaijman
